Employee of the month.

Jo was this month's employee of the month, comments included; Arranging person centred activities, For having the energy and patience to support the residents to enjoy their chosen activities. For encouraging residents to be included and having a feeling of worth. For arranging a great party for Valentine's day ensuring that the residents and the relatives had a joyful experience. Well done Jo!

Summer party plans are in the making, we will keep you all up to date when we have finalised the plans.
